TIME: 7:00am – 8:30am

VENUE: Royal on the Park, Cnr Alice & Albert Streets, Brisbane

“Optimising Systems of Care in Australia”

Around the world, evolving disease profiles and innovative care approaches are shifting the fundamentals of health care delivery toward care coordination and clinical integration. As Australian health care undergoes significant reconfiguration and reform, organisations have a tremendous opportunity to plan, adopt and manage new models of care that deliver high-quality, seamless clinical services.

This presentation will share innovative approaches to building systems of care that optimise resource utilisation and place performance front and centre.

Planning for Changing Care Models

The vision of a more integrated care pathway presents an opportunity for effective resource utilisation, planning can be challenging in a rapidly changing environment. This presentation will highlight emerging trends in chronic and acute diseases across care settings and highlight strategies for efficient and higher-quality care.

Speaker: Michael Sachs

Michael Sachs, Sg2's chairman and CEO, is a noted health care industry strategist and visionary. He is a frequent lecturer on the future of health care and the impact of the business and changing innovation on care delivery. He frequently gives presentations to executive teams, boards of trustees, industry groups and physicians across the United States and abroad. He has contributed articles to numerous journals and magazines and coauthored books and periodicals.
